

State Update

State Deputy's Message

Want some good news? We will have a new council in our state this December. That will bring the total number of councils to 37 with 3460 Knights state wide. Council 17140 will be established at Immaculate Conception parish in Copperton under the guidance of Grand Knight Alex Aerts. Council 17140 will be assigned to District 9 under District Deputy SK Billy Sandoval and Assembly 3758 lead by Faithful Navigator SK Barry Stine. This new council will meet on the 3rd Tuesday of the month at 7:00 PM in the Immaculate Conception parish social center. Congratulations to District Deputy 6 SK Jerry Angus and New Council Development Coordinator SK Andy Airriess for leading the way to establish this council. Looking forward to integrating Council 17140 into the Utah state brotherhood.

Time to beat the new membership drum – again. With five months behind us, the month of November was fairly strong with new members joining our ranks. We're still 50% behind our goal to bring in new men to help us offset the inevitable losses we experience due to suspensions, withdrawals, transfers and deaths. Fortunately from last month's report, the recruiting councils increased by four for a total of 17 of our 36 councils. During November these four new recruiting councils and a one from last month increased our ranks by 13 new members.

Congratulations to Councils 9731 Our Lady of Lourdes - Magna (133%), 10304 St Martin De Porres - Taylorsville (100%), 15741 Our Lady of Guadalupe - Salt Lake City (100%), 1136 Father Escalante - Provo (100%), 8350 Saints Peter and Paul - West Valley City (71%), 7961 St James the Worker - West Jordan (50%), 1129 St Mary's - Park City (38%), 14399 Holy Family - South Ogden (43%), 16127 Deacon Sliger - Hill AFB Base (33%), 12181 St Teresa of Calcutta - Draper (28%), and 13646 St Theresa of the Child Jesus - Midvale (25%). These 11 councils are leading the charge. By the way, Online Membership is also working great. Six new members have signed up using this new method.

Shifting gears, when's the last time you consulted your 2018-2019 Fraternal Leader Success Planner. It's a great tool that provides look aheads and reminders for forms or event deadlines, important dates, Supreme office events, membership activities, programming activities, and measurements for success. December's reminders are 1) Meet with your Pastor to set council program dates on the parish calendar, and 2) Prepare for the District Mid-Year Membership Meeting of council officers to be held within two weeks after the State Mid-Year Meeting.

For your planning purposes, the State Mid-Year Meeting will be held on Saturday, 5 January 2019 at the Cathedral of the Madeline. All Knights are invited. Detailed agendas, locations, and meal reservations can be found on the utahknights.org web site. Hope to see you all in January.

Lastly, want to know what's going on in the state? One of the best tools we all have at our disposal is the utahknights.org web site. In addition, information from Supreme can be found at KofC.org. It's all there for your convenience – please use these valuable tools.

Vivat Jesus!

Thank You

I want to thank everyone one of you Sir Knights, Knights, and a special thank you to my partner in charity Kristen Mason on behalf of the US Veterans for donating and participating in Socks for Heroes. This was an idea to bring the Fourth-Degree together in Utah; I cannot tell you how proud I am of all of you pulling to make this happen. Thank you from the bottom of my heart. We manage to collect over 8000 pairs of socks; we have distributed 2500 pairs in the SL VA Hospital morning regulars, 1000 at the VA Home in Payson UT, and 2300 that the VA Home in Layton. We still have little over 2200 pairs to distribute in December. Keep them coming and let’s do it again September of 2019...

State Secretary's Corner

Giving Back.

Administrative notes, the state of Utah has a new council! Congrats to our newest council Immaculate Conception Council 17140 out in Copperton. No changes have been made since last month and we still have 4 councils not submitting their Chosen Officers report (Form 185) and 13 councils not submitting their Program Personnel report (Form 365); and 3 councils are currently suspended. If you are in question as to if you are one of these councils, please contact your District Deputy or myself and we can help you. Year to Date we have recruited 55 new members as a state, as we are reaching the half way point of the year we are only at 23.91% of our goal. So we are a little behind but If we all work together I'm confident we can achieve our goal. Again, if you need help with anything, I and all of the state officers are here to assist you; please reach out.

This is the time of year where we are all so busy with the holidays and family... but this is also the time of year that we as Knights of Columbus shine! There are so many things to be involved with and I highly encourage you to take time to get involved, even if you feel you are too busy already. You will get so much more out of your efforts than you put in and it is so rewarding. Whether that be a Coats for Kids distribution, a holiday blood drive, or a council Christmas party. I'm looking forward to visiting as many events as I can and to sharing this season with you.

Last month I shared one of the reasons I joined the Knights, here is another of my many reasons. To give back. And as I previously stated this is one of the seasons that allows me the opportunity to do that. Thank you for allowing me to be a Knight, to serve you, and giving me the opportunity to give back during times like these. I encourage you to give back and to offer that opportunity to others to join the Knights so they can give back too.

Last comment, giving back and offering that opportunity to give back isn't just for the men. Invite the families, the spouses and children to take part too. Whether someone is a Knight or not, a male or not, they are looking for this opportunity as well and we can be that for all. Merry Christmas from my family to yours and let's finish 2018 strong with our charity and membership growth.

Vivat Jesus!

From Supreme: Congress Passes Bill to Support Minorities in Iraq and Syria and Hold ISIS Accountable

11/28/2019

By Andrew Fowler

After years of advocacy, testimony before congress and support from the Knights of Columbus, bipartisan legislation that will provide humanitarian relief for victims of genocide in Iraq and Syria, while holding ISIS perpetrators accountable, was passed on Nov. 28, by the House of Representatives.

"The Knights of Columbus applauds the passage of HR 390, which makes clear that those targeted for genocide by ISIS should be included in American government assistance in the region," said Supreme Knight Carl Anderson in a statement regarding the legislation. "The fact that this bill passed both the House and the Senate unanimously shows that the American response to genocide transcends partisanship and that there is enormous political will to protect and preserve religious minorities in the Middle East, including Christians and Yazidis, who were targeted for extinction."

Known as the "Iraq and Syria Genocide Relief and Accountability Act of 2018," the bill, authored by Rep. Chris Smith (R-NJ) and co-sponsored by Rep. Anna Eshoo (D-CA), now awaits President Donald Trump's signature for its passage into law.

What does the legislation do?

The legislation authorizes the "financial and technical" assistance for "humanitarian, stabilization, and recovery needs" for former and current religious minority residents of Iraq and Syria.

This assistance could come through the federal government or through entities, including faith-based entities that are providing support to address the recovery.

In addition, the legislation allows the State Department - in collaboration with other federal agencies - to conduct criminal investigations and apprehend individuals identified as alleged ISIS members, and identify warning signs of genocide and threats of persecution.

Why is this important?

According to the State Department’s annual reports on international religious freedom, the number of Christians living in Iraq has drastically declined from an estimated 1.4 million in 2002 to fewer than 250,000 in 2017.

Meanwhile, Christian communities in Syria are “considerably” smaller as a result of the ongoing civil war that began in 2011.

How have the Knights been involved with the U.S. government?

The Knights of Columbus, a proponent of the legislation, have advocated for the protection of Christians and religious minorities in the Middle East for several years. In December 2015, Supreme Knight Anderson testified before Congress, urging the House Foreign Affairs Committee to “adopt a resolution recognizing that the Christian communities of Iraq and Syria, as well as other vulnerable communities facing genocide,” emphasizing these attacks preceded the rise of ISIS.

The Knights then provided a comprehensive report to the Obama Administration in early 2016 that recommended the State Department declare the persecution of Christians and religious minorities as a genocide. The recommendation was taken when then-Secretary of State John Kerry publicly issued a declaration in March 2016 stating ISIS’s “entire worldview is based on eliminating those who do not subscribe to its perverse ideology.”

Since then, Supreme Knight Anderson has met with members Trump Administration, including Vice President Mike Pence, encouraging the protection of vulnerable religious communities as an official foreign policy initiative. Vice President Pence pledged the government’s direct aid, thanking the Knights for their “extraordinary work caring for the persecuted around the world.”

Back in October 2018, the Knights commenced a joint effort United States Agency for International Development (USAID) in assisting religious minorities in the rebuilding and stabilization of their communities.

What else have the Knights been doing in the Middle East?

Since 2014, the Knights have allocated nearly $20 million to aid Christians and religious minorities in Iraq and Syria to provide food, shelter and clothing.

Last year, the Knights committed raising $2 million to rebuild the liberated Iraqi town of Karamles after it was demolished by ISIS soldiers.

The Knights also worked in conjunction with the Trump Administration to de-escalate tensions between Kurdistan and Iraqi governments that threatened a recently rebuilt Christian town.

What happens next?

The Knights will continue to support the efforts of providing humanitarian assistance to Christians at risk of persecution throughout the world. No Christian community is an island, isolated in itself. Every Christian is a member of the Body of Christ and therefore must never be forgotten.

From Officers of the Utah State Council

For the Good of the Order

Fr. Patrick Elliot Our faithful Brother, Father and Sir Knight Patrick Elliott passed away after coming off life support due to a brain injury. Last week, he was walking his dog and apparently slipped and hit his head on the curb and passed out. He was taken to the hospital where the Doctors put him in a medically induced coma because of the trauma to his brain. With very little brain function this week, the family decided to take him off life support yesterday morning. Father Elliot passed away last night at 7:35 PM. Please keep him in your prayers.

As funeral details become available, you will be notified.

Lou Bertram (#11479) A Knight for decades, many of you might have known Lou because of the TIPS training he did throughout the state. Lou was Past Grand Knight of Salt Lake Council 602. Sadly, Lou passed away earlier this week.

A retired veteran, FBI agent, and first responder, Lou was a strong supporter in his time and talents for our beloved Carmelite Sisters. A vigil will be held this Monday, December 3rd at St Vincent parish beginning at 6 PM. A funeral Mass will be held at St Vincent on Tuesday, December 4th beginning at 11 AM.

Richard Vigor (#6966), who is still recovering from cancer treatment.

Chuck Hodell, who is recovering from a serious auto accident.

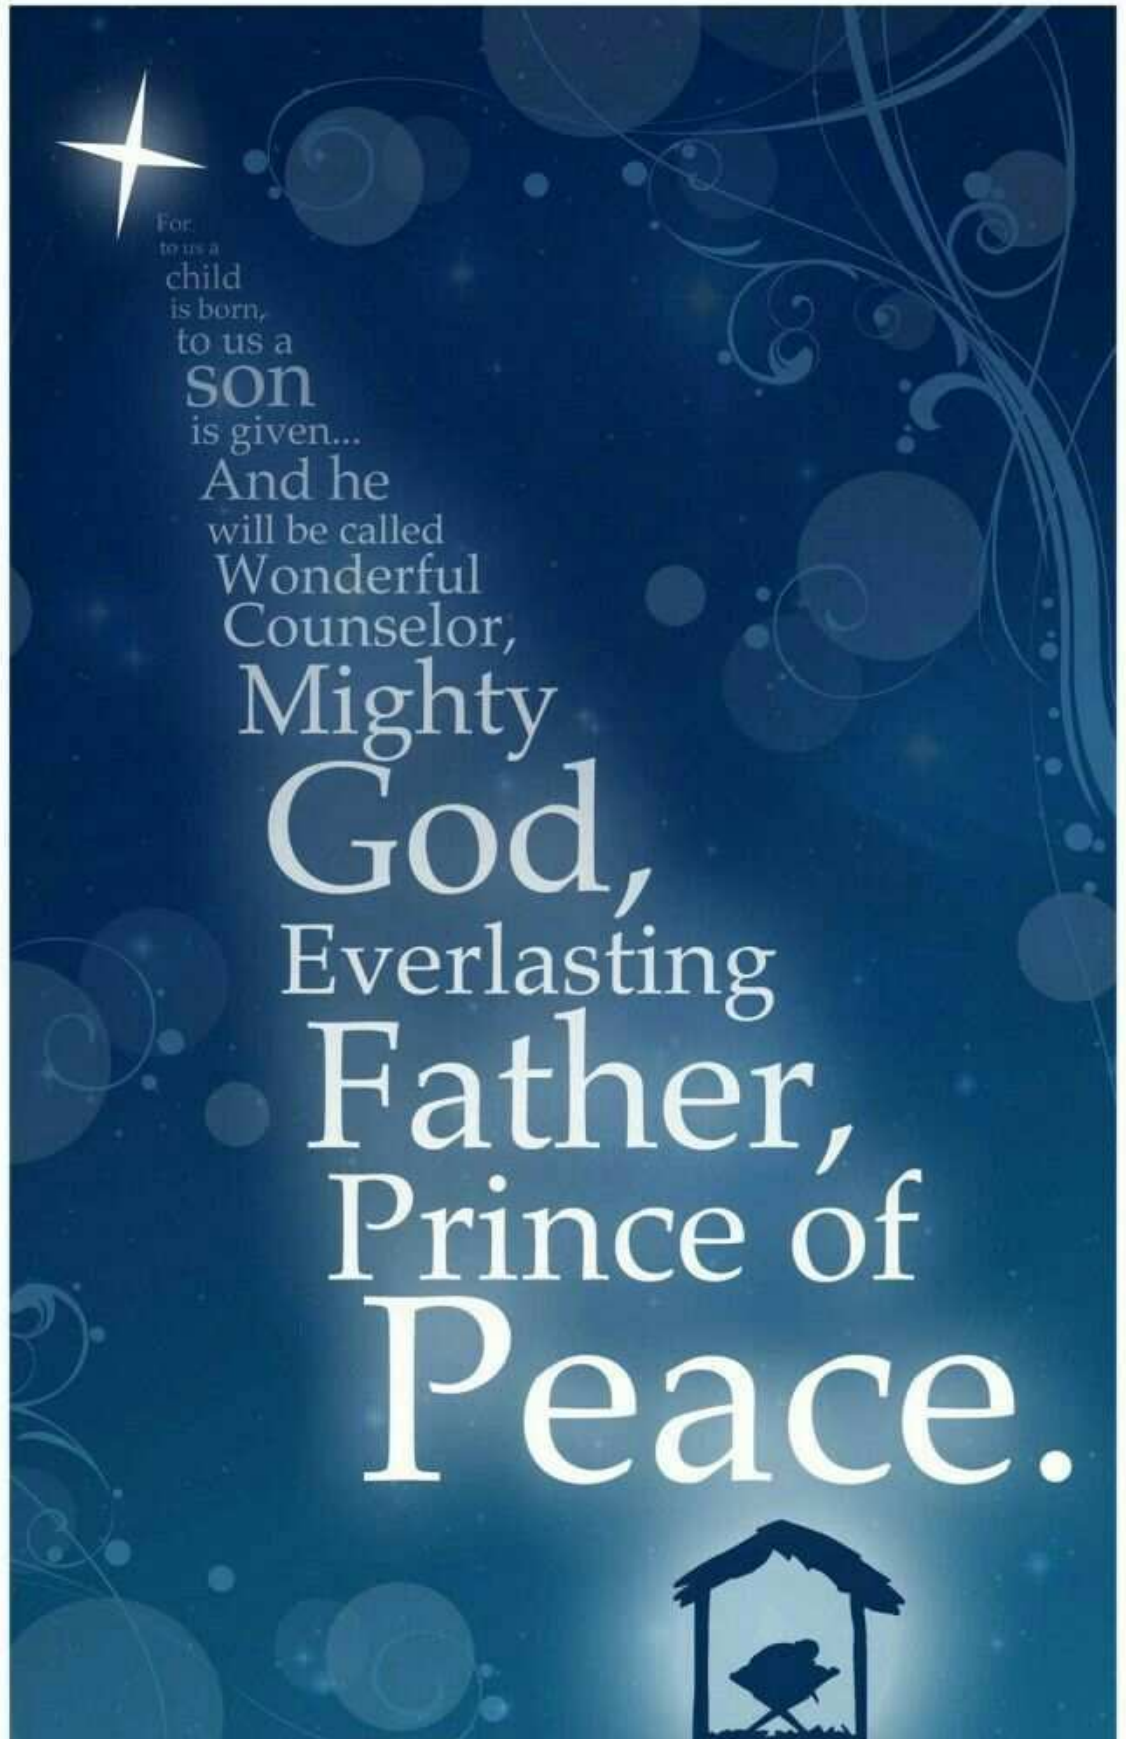

A Knight who used to live in Utah. He is going through a family situation now that can only be described as horrific. The worst thing you can imagine, then worse. He asks for privacy and for prayers, and you would too in his situation.

For Men and Women in Uniform

We pray for the protection of our family members and friends serving in the Armed Forces and as first responders.

Please include these members and their families in the Good of the Order portion of your monthly council meetings.

If you are aware of a Brother Knight that should be included in this list, please forward his information to the editor: trever.hinckley@outlook.com
